

FACULTY OF MUSIC UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

THURSDAY NOON SERIES

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1993

Dr. Jean Sinor

The 1992/93 Wilma & Clifford Smith Visitor in Music

lectures on

The Role of the Arts in Education and the Community

Dr. Sinor is the Chair of Music Education at the University of Indiana and the Past President of the American Kodaly Association. Her expertise lies in Elementary Music Education and its relationship to research.

Walter Hall -- Edward Johnson Building
Admission Free 12:10pm

Faculty of Music University of Toronto

Dr. Jean Sinor, Music Educator

will be in residence from Monday, January 18 to Friday, January 22 as the

The 1992/93 Wilma and Clifford Smith Visitor in Music

- Wednesday, January 20: 5:30 - 7:30pm -- A free public presentation for Graduate Students, ~~Faculty and Metro Toronto~~ Music Education Coordinators: "Relationships Between Research and the Musical Practitioner."
- Thursday, January 21: 12:10 - 1:00pm -- Thursday Noon Series Lecture "The Role of the Arts in Education and the Community."*

Dr. Sinor is the Chair of Music Education at the University of Indiana and the Past President of the American Kodaly Association. Her expertise lies in Elementary Music Education and its relationship to research.

*In addition these lectures, Dr. Sinor will be presenting a number of in-class lectures.